Key Concepts

It is important to note that one of Paul's most evident ways to test the veracity and quality of Christianity was to ask the church members whether they had received the Holy Spirit (Acts 19:2) and whether they correctly understood who Jesus was, who God was, and how people are saved through baptism in Jesus Christ. For this reason, when Paul was writing to the Ephesians many years later, he returned to, and insisted upon, these crucial topics. These topics were determinant to the Christian identity and life, both at the level of the individual and of groups (family and church). There is no Christian church without Jesus Christ, the Holy Spirit, and the Father.

Sabbath Blessings

Refuge in the Lord

Psalms 32: 1, 2,5

Blessed is the one whose transgression is forgiven, who sin is covered.

Blessed is the man against whom the Lord counts no iniquity, and in whose spirit there is no deceit.

I said, "I will confess my transgressions to the Lord," and you forgave the iniquity of my sin.

What is forgiveness? It is looking a failure square in the face and wiping it from your slate. But how is forgiveness won? Only through acknowledging it squarely. Forgiveness does not come to the self-justifying. It comes only to the contrite, the honest. One must take off the mask. Stop the pretense. Humble oneself before the Lord with honest transparency. Only the blood of Jesus washes away our sin.

Martin Luther wrote:

This fountain is inexhaustible , it never fails no matter how much we draw from it. Even if we all dip from it without stopping, it cannot be emptied, but it remains a perennial fount, an unfathomable well, an eternal fountain.
