Key Concepts

Paul emphasizes that we are saved “by grace” It is totally God’s work, initiative, love, mercy, and power. For Paul, this work is the foundation of the gospel. Yet, Paul immediately rushes to add that we are saved “through faith.” While our salvation is, in totality, God’s work, God does not save us against our will. God’s salvation becomes operational in us when we exercise faith—that is, when we accept and receive God’s salvation allowing God to empower us.

Refuge in the Lord

Psalms 46:1-4 God is our refuge and strength; a very present help in trouble. Therefore we will not fear though the earth gives way, though the mountains be moved into the heart of the sea, though its waters roar and foam, though the mountains tremble at its swelling.

There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God, the holy habitation of the Most High. God is in the midst of her; . . .

Psalms 46 offers an alternative to the world. It says, Be still. Be quiet. Look up. Calm down. God reigns.

All is under the wise and far-reaching hand of God.
