Key Concepts

Worldview and identity determine values and wisdom. A Gentile world view will develop a certain set of values and a certain type of wisdom. God's kingdom, God's worldview, and God's values generate an entirely different type of wisdom. In Paul's view, Christian wisdom is rooted in God's sacrificial love, in Christ's light, and in pure morality. The wise Christian will wake up from the "sleep" of the world and be enlightened by Christ's gospel.

Refuge in the Lord

Psalms 69:16-18

Answer me, O Lord, for your steadfast love is good; according to your abundant mercy, turn to me. Hide not your face from your servant, for I am in distress; make haste to answer me.

Draw near to my soul, redeem me; ransom me because of my enemies!.

Verse 30 I will praise the name of God with a song; I will magnify him with thanksgiving.

Consider this: in your time of distress, you can pray Psalms 69 and know with confidence that God will somehow answer and deliver you, because Jesus prayed for deliverance but faced the cross nevertheless. Jesus endured separation from God on our behalf so that we never need to. You may open your heart to him without any fear of rejection or silence.
