Key Concepts

Overall, the early church's understanding of its identity and mission centered on Christ's command to make disciples of all nations. The fact that each of the four Gospels ends with a version of the Great Commission is a strong witness to its centrality. (Matt. 28:18-20, Mark 16:15-20, Luke 24:45-49, John 20:21-23). Since then, the Great Commission has been interpreted and applied differently over the centuries.

Refuge in the Lord

Psalms 91:1,2

He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High will abide in the shadow of the Almighty
I will say to the Lord, "My refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust."

Vs. 3 For he will deliver you from the snare of the fowler and from the deadly pestilence . . . Vs. 11 For he will command His angels concerning you . . .

Vs. 14 Because he holds fast to me in love, I will deliver him, I will protect him , because he knows my name. . . .

This psalm's consistent theme is the rest and peace God gives. Do you see the Lord himself, your heavenly Father, ruling over all that washes into your life, hard and easy, good and bad? Do you see him nurturing you along in life, loving you, protecting you, working all for good?
