Key Concepts

This week's focus moves from God's mission to humanity's call to partner with God in sharing His love with the broader world. Scripture has numerous stories and passages that illustrate God's active call to human beings as His partners to share in the blessings He desires all humanity to experience.

Refuge in the Lord

Psalms 92: 1-3
It is good to give thanks to the Lord,
to sing praises to your name, O Most High;
to declare your steadfast love in the morning, and your faithfulness by night.
. . . For you, O Lord, have made me glad by your work, at the works of your hands I sing for joy.

The prescript for this psalm tells us it is meant for the Sabbath. The Sabbath is something built into the very creation of the world; we see the first Sabbath in the opening two chapters of the Bible, as God himself rests on the seventh day. The Sabbath has been put in place for God's people to show us that he is a God of rest and that in trusting him we ourselves find our true rest. The Sabbath is a gracious gift in order for God's people to gain a foretaste of the final rest in the new heavens and new earth we will one day enjoy.
