Key Concepts

The focus of this week's lesson is on sharing God's mission. Jesus had compassion, either toward individuals in need or towards whole crowds of people. Sometimes this compassion led Jesus to touch and heal a person, sometimes it led Him to feed a crowd creatively, and sometimes it resulted in a kind word or story. Compassion and sharing in God's mission are inseparable. Jesus also sought out people who were open to receiving a blessing. We should follow His example.

Refuge in the Lord

Psalms 95:1-2

O, Come, let us sing to the Lord; let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation.

Let us come into his presence with thanksgiving; let us make a joyful noise to Him with songs of praise!

To the humble, believing soul, the house of God on earth is the gate of heaven. The song of praise, the prayer, the words spoken by Christ's representatives, are God's appointed agencies to prepare a people for the church above, for that loftier worship into which there can enter nothing that defileth. . .

The melody of song, poured forth from many hearts in clear, distinct utterance, is one of God's instrumentalities in the work of saving souls. All the service should be conducted with solemnity and awe as if in the visible presence of the Master of assemblies. (TCV6.5)

The voice of thanksgiving, praise, and rejoicing is heard in heaven. Angels sing. .
