Key Concepts

It is important to note that God's unrelenting missionary outreach to His creatures in various ways does not make believers' involvement to in mission irrelevant. Matt. 28:18-20 and 1 Peter 2:9 point out that making disciples for Christ is our fundamental reason for existence both as a church and as individual believers. It is a privilege for us to be co-laborers with God in what He could accomplish perfectly well without our participation. Also, knowing that God is ahead of us, preparing the ground for the sowing of the gospel seed, is another incentive to to accept the privilege He graciously extends to us to be part of His team.

Refuge in the Lord

When we come to the God of the Bible

Psalms 112:5,6 It is well with the man who deals generously and lends; who conducts his affairs with justice. For the righteous will never be moved; he will be remembered forever.

Those who walk with God are funneling their deepest hopes squarely onto God himself. “His heart is firm, trusting in the Lord” (vs 7) This is why ” he is not afraid of bad news.” Why? Because even the worst news can only threaten his earthly cares, nothing can take away God himself. Ultimately. this life for him is but the breaking of the dawn: “Light dawns in the darkness for the upright” vs. 4. What does this mean? For those who trust in the Lord bringing all their anxieties and cast them upon God.
