Key Concepts

The study of these four songs – Psalms 44, 22, 13, 60 – teaches us how to pray in our times of tribulation. We have learned the necessity of honestly expressing our troubles, failures, and discouragement to the Lord in prayer. With assurance we may bring our complaints and sorrows to our Creator, acting in faith and trusting that our prayers are heard.

Refuge in the Lord

When we come to the God of the Bible

Psalms 121 I lift up my eyes to the hills

Where does my help come from?

My help comes from the Lord,

The Maker of heaven and earth.

He will not let your foot slip--

He who watches over you will not slumber;

Indeed, he who watches over Israel

will neither slumber nor sleep.

The Lord watches over you—

The Lord is your shade at your right hand;

the sun will not harm you by day,

nor the moon by night.

the Lord will keep you from all harm—

he will watch over your life;

the Lord will watch over your coming and

going both now and forevermore.

We naturally and easily feel small, weak,

and defenseless. What does it mean to be part of the people of God? Among a hundred other things, it means that the God who created the universe never ceases to watch

over and actively protect you.
