Key Concepts

In Psalms the Lord is depicted as a powerful King. He is also represented as a kind and loving God who cares for those who believe in Him. God is depicted as a tender Shepherd taking care of His defenseless sheep. He provides everything for them – rest, food and water, comfort and guidance. His presence in the valley of the shadow of death, abundance, and goodness and mercy.

SABBATH BLESSINGS

God wants to be noticed, and God wants to be remembered.

Remember: Adult Sabbath School people.
Select a Psalm that is meaningful to you.
Sharing will be the last Sabbath of this quarter.

Refuge in the Lord

When we come to the God of the Bible

Psalms 125 Those who trust in the Lord are like Mount Zion, which cannot be moved, but abides forever. Vs. 4
Do good, O Lord, to those who are good, and to those who are upright, in their hearts! But those who turn aside to their crooked ways the Lord will lead away with evil doers! Peace be upon Israel!

And how does one survive in the meantime, amid wickedness? “Those who trust in the Lord are like Mount Zion, which cannot be Moved”. Whatever assault you feel yourself to be under today as you walk with Christ, the answer is not to respond to insults with insults, not to hope ultimately in political or economic leadership, but to rely on the Lord. To trust him. Yield to him. Think about him. Draw strength from him. You can do so right now, by reading and praying Psalm 125.
