Key Concepts

The Psalms are meant to exert a profound impact on our understanding of such complex issues as the existence of sin and suffering. As we analyze the Psalter in light of this challenging subject, we again marvel at the raw honesty of the psalmists in their prayers. We, too, can ask questions of the Lord, we also can express our doubts to Him. God will listen and reply to our concerns happily if we inquire of Him in faith and humility.

SABBATH BLESSINGS

*The longer the tea bag sits in the cup
the stronger the tea,
The longer you sit in God's word
the stronger your faith.*

Remember: Adult Sabbath School people.
Select a Psalm that is meaningful to you.
Sharing will be the last Sabbath of this quarter.

Refuge in the Lord

When we come to the God of the Bible Psalms 127 Vs. 1,2 Unless the Lord builds
the house, those who build it labor in vain.
Unless the Lord watches over the city, the watchman stays awake in vain. Vs 3 Behold, the children are a heritage from the Lord, the fruit of the womb a reward. . . .
This psalm lifts our vision to see the grand reality behind every human endeavor and accomplishment. This is deeply encouraging for our little, everyday Christian lives.
God's recipe for significance is to get low,
not high; to commit our plans to the Lord
in prayer, not to move ahead without a sense of his blessing and guidance.
*Build into your life self-conscious, moment-
by-moment mindfulness of the Lord.
Appeal to him constantly and invite Him
into your thoughts and dreams and plans.
He will give you a life of eternal significance
beyond what you could comprehend.*
