Key Concepts

The study this week not only defines wisdom according to Scripture but gives principles of wisdom for daily life. The foundation of biblical wisdom is the “fear of the Lord, “ which the Scriptures identify as reverent obedience equates the “fear the Lord” with expressions such as “to walk in all His ways,” “to love Him,” “to serve the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul.” And “to keep the commandments of the Lord and His statutes.”

Refuge in the Lord

When we come to the God of the Bible

Psalms 133 Behold, how good and pleasant it is when brothers and sisters dwell in unity.

Has it ever occurred to you that one hundred pianos all tuned to the same fork are automatically tuned to each other? They are of one accord by being tuned, not to each other, but to another standard to which each one must individually bow. So one hundred worshipers met together, each one looking away to Christ, are in heart nearer to each other than they could possibly be were they to become “unity” conscious and turn their eyes away from God to strive for closer fellowship.

A.W.Tozer

Walk with God. Seek Him. As you do, you will find relational avenues opening up that will take you into a fellowship deeper than what could otherwise be possible.
