Key Concepts

The Bible's ideas and themes are carefully intertwined, revealing the Spirit that inspired the minds of the prophets and the apostles who wrote it. The end result is the greatest masterpiece ever penned in human history. Our faith and actions should be founded on this solid rock. The Scriptures are like a treasure chest wherein we may discover more precious gems of truth about our amazing God.

Refuge in the Lord

When we come to the God of the Bible

Psalms 136 Give thanks to the Lord

Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good

For his steadfast love endures forever.

Give thanks to the God of gods

For his steadfast love endures forever.

Give thanks to the Lord of Lords to him who alone does great wonders, to him who by understanding made the heaven to him who spread out the earth above water

Throughout this psalm we are reminded of God's repeated acts of deliverance for his people down through history. He does not deliver because his people deserve it. He does not deliver because his people deserve

it. He does not save us because we impress him. He delivers because this is who he is toward wayward sinners. Do you feel like you have "used up" God's reserve of love for you? Do you not realize that the more you need of his love, the more his heart gives it?

"His steadfast love endures forever." There is no ceiling to it. No end of the line. He gives himself, all of himself to you, all of you.
