Key Concepts

The Scriptures in their entirety are based on the understanding that their Author is alive and moving through, or intervening in, earthly events. The power of the Bible's message resides in this fact. We learn for instance, that God controls the sea, the winds, the big fish, the vine, and the worm in Jonah's story. The Bible teaches us that the Creator rules over natural forces then and now.

Refuge in the Lord

When we come to the God of the Bible

Psalms 139 O Lord, you have searched me and known me! You know when I sit down and when I rise up; you discern my thoughts from afar.

You search out my path and my lying down
and are acquainted with all my ways..

Even before a word is on my tongue, behold,
O Lord, you know it altogether. You hem me in, behind and before, and lay your hand upon me.

Such knowledge is too wonderful for me;
it is high, I cannot attain it. Vs 6

Where shall I go from your Spirit? Or Where shall I flee from your presence?

I praise you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made. Wonderful are your works; my soul knows it very well.

Search me, O God, and know my heart!

Try me and know my thoughts!

And see if there be any grievous way in me,
and lead me in the way everlasting!

DO YOU KNOW GOD?
