Key Concepts

“Let integrity and uprightness preserve me, for I wait for You” Psalms 25:21

“My soul wait silently for God alone, for my expectation is from Him” Psalms 62:5

“And in His word I do hope” Psalms 130:5

Above all else, our attention should be focused on the Scriptures as the source of all our hope.

Refuge in the Lord

When we come to the God of the Bible
Psalms 147 3 He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds. . . Great is our Lord, and abundant in power; his understanding is beyond measure. . . Praise the Lord, O Jerusalem! Praise your God, O Zion! For he strengthens the bars of your gates; He blesses your children within you. He makes peace in your borders; he fills you with the finest of the wheat. . .

This psalm beckons to us to praise the Lord for his wide ranging care for all of creation especially for his people. The God of the Bible finds his deepest delight in meeting the needs of those in desperate straits. God runs to the brokenhearted.
