Key Concepts

The foundation of God's kingdom is Creation. That foundation should be the reason for our worship of Him (Ps. 100:3-5). The Creation is also the reason for the Sabbath. And the seventh day is a remembrance of the power of God. With this background, we better understand why the message of Revelation 14:7 states, "'And worship Him who made heaven and earth, the sea and springs of water".

Refuge in the Lord

When we come to the God of the Bible

Psalms 122:1,2 I was glad when they said to me, "Let us go to the house of the Lord!" Our feet have been standing within your gates, O Jerusalem!

Verse 8 & 9 For my brothers and companions sake I will say, "Peace be within you!" For the sake of the house of the Lord our God, I will seek your good.

The deepest meaning of this psalm is not just that we should enjoy going to church. Gathered worship is certainly a key theme of this psalm, but what is gathered worship? It is fellowship with the Triune God, through the gospel. It is the restoring of that for which we were made. It is to become human again. It is to live. In Jesus, we become our true selves. We are given back our humanity. We taste Eden.
